

AAMB - 2011 Grants

Organization Name	Project Title	Grant Amount	AAMB Priority Area	Grant Year
Community Empowerment Association	to increase leadership, social and economic skills among high risk urban African American male youth	$300,000.00	Cross-Priority and Other	2011
Duquesne University	to provide an introduction to an education Master's program to the Heinz Fellows	$37,600.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
Duquesne University	to provide tuition to fund master's level study for the Heinz Fellows	$190,400.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
Foundation for Indiana University of Pennsylvania	to increase the number of African American males in Colleges of Education from 1% enrollment to 5%	$361,500.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
Gateway Medical Society	for mentoring African American male students in Pittsburgh schools by African American physicians	$150,000.00	Cross-Priority and Other	2011
Homewood Children's Village	for the Heinz Fellows Program	$750,000.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
Hosanna House, Inc.	to support the Brothers Keepers Program for African American boys and to pilot the program with a faith-based institution as a demonstration project	$225,000.00	Cross-Priority and Other	2011
The Mentoring Center	to plan, launch, and operate a fellows program for emerging black male filmmakers in Pittsburgh, PA	$50,000.00	Communications	2011
Negro Educational Emergency Drive	for a second round of support for the African American male mentoring initiative	$200,000.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
The NorthShore Community Alliance	to complete a strategic planning process	$7,000.00	Cross-Priority and Other	2011
OMG Center for Collaborative Learning	to fund comparative research in Philadelphia about media images of African American men and boys	$25,000.00	Communications	2011
POISE Foundation	for the identification, education, mentoring and support of African American males as entrepreneurs	$50,000.00	Economic Opportunity	2011

AAMB - 2011 Grants

Organization Name	Project Title	Grant Amount	AAMB Priority Area	Grant Year
Press Club of Western Pennsylvania	to allow the organization to provide a quality workshop where students learn about journalism	$10,000.00	Communications	2011
Program to Aid Citizen Enterprise	to support a capacity building program for the African American Men & Boys Initiative grantees	$100,000.00	Cross-Priority and Other	2011
Propel Schools Foundation	to prepare African American boys to pursue and complete postsecondary education	$750,000.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
RAND Corporation	for the support of AAMBTF, this evaluation aims to assess each AAMBTF's grantees' implementation processes	$50,000.00	Evaluation	2011
RAND Corporation	for the support of AAMBTF, this evaluation aims to assess each AAMBTF's implementation processes	$150,000.00	Evaluation	2011
Robert Morris University	to support the Black Male Leadership Development Institute for Pittsburgh students	$150,000.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
University of Pittsburgh	for a summit of media leaders to seek solutions to negative images of black males	$60,000.00	Communications	2011
Urban League of Greater Pittsburgh Charter School	to foster within AAMB resilience, academic purpose and cultural identity through Rites of Passage	$50,000.00	Identity, Gender and Character Development	2011
Woodland Hills School District	for the Scholar Identity framework to support the success of black males in our schools	$750,000.00	Educational Opportunity	2011
WQED Multimedia	to support a series of 30-minute television programs intended to highlight positive images and stories of African American men and boys and a town hall meeting	$150,443.00	Communications	2011
Grand Totals (22 items)		$4,566,943.00		