

AAMB - 2013 Educational Opportunity Grants

Organization Name	Project Title	Grant Amount	Grant Year
Adonai Center For Black Males	to support the Fellows Program for at risk male students in grades 9-12 and strengthen the Center's information management system and fund development plan	$35,000.00	2013
Adonai Center For Black Males	to support the educational advancement of young men and prepare them for post-secondary opportunities	$150,000.00	2013
Camera News Inc dba: Third World Newsreel	to support the production of an American Promise screening event in Pittsburgh this summer and the early stage development of the Promise Club, professional development curricula and youth module	$30,000.00	2013
Homewood Children's Village	for the Homewood Children's Village role as the fiscal agent for the Heinz Fellows Cohorts #1 and #2	$163,558.00	2013
Homewood Children's Village	to provide stipends and benefits for Cohort #1 Heinz Fellows as they enter their final phase of their fellowship and support for Cohort #2 Fellows as they begin their first year of the program	$680,500.00	2013
Marilyn G. Rabb Foundation	to support Funding for Arts In Action at Shuman Juvenile Detention Center	$48,128.00	2013
Pittsburgh Board of Public Education	to support the "We Promise Program" for American male students that aligns with the District's goal of accelerating students achievement	$200,000.00	2013
University of Pittsburgh	to support the Univ. of Pittsburgh School of Social Work and Center on Race and Social Problems one-day education summit for educators from the region entitled "A Call to Conscience: Effective Policies and Practices in Educating African American Males"	$37,600.00	2013
Washington and Jefferson College	to support the Charles West Fellows' Scholarship and Mentoring Program	$200,000.00	2013
Grand Totals (9 items)		$1,544,786.00	