The Heinz Endowments

Howard Heinz Endowment • Vira I. Heinz Endowment

Thank you for your interest in The Heinz Endowments, and welcome to our online grant application. These instructions should help you complete your application, but if you have questions, please contact us at cdabat@heinz.org

This document contains the following sections:

Page	Content
1	Preparation
1	Create a new general application
6	Login to existing applications

Preparation:

You should begin by reviewing the information in the "Grants" section of the Endowments website, which includes eligibility requirements and steps on how to apply. When you are ready to begin your online application, start at the "Apply Online" page, and select the correct link:

- Create a new application (If you do not already have an account with the Endowments, you will be instructed to do so through this link before you start your application.)
- Log in to existing applications

Create a new general application:

Begin at the "Apply Online" page on the Endowments website. Click on the first link, "Create a new general application."

Apply Online

If you have any questions or problems with the online application form, please contact Cheryl Dabat.

If you created a new online account, you will receive an email from the system, letting you know that your account was successfully created. It will contain your password and a link to begin creating your application. Please save your password so that you can get into your account later.

You will then be asked to select between applying as a 501(c)(3) Public Charity or applying using a Fiscal Sponsor. Please select the appropriate response from the drop down box.

	The Heinz Endowments
of the internal re fiscal sponsor ha	wments accepts applications from organizations that are public charities exempt under 501(c)(3) evenue code. Applications are also accepted if you are using a qualified fiscal sponsor. A qualified is the ultimate discretion and control over the activities of the non-exempt recipient.
Please indicate y

You will then be asked to enter your Federal Tax ID/EIN number. We cannot accept applications from organizations that do not have tax information on file. Individuals and for-profit organizations are not eligible for funding. If you do not have a Federal Tax ID/EIN number because you are a school, government entity or have a group exemption, please email Cheryl Dabat at cdabat@heinz.org.

The foundation funds organizations classified as tax-exempt under and as public charities under section 509(a) of that code. If you a enter the Sponsor Organization's Federal Tax ID.

Click on "submit," and you will proceed to a new application.

NOTE: only one person should be logged into an application at a given time from one computer. If there are multiple people logged in at the same time to the same application, only one person has control of the data and loss of data will occur.

Important information about the form:

- Any field that is marked with a 💠 is a required field and must be completed before you can submit your application.
- Text fields can be spell-checked by clicking on the \checkmark mark after the field.
- You do not need to complete your application in one sitting. There is a "save and finish later" button at the bottom of the page.
- You can share your in-process application with a colleague at your organization (or with a program officer at the Endowments, if applicable) by clicking on the "email draft" link in the top right corner. But, do not submit your application if you anticipate revising it after that review. An application cannot be modified after it is submitted.
- Every page offers a link for a printer-friendly version of your application in the top right corner.
- The "Contact Us" button is available on every page for you to send an email question to our grants administrator.
- If you leave your form idle for 90 minutes, you will get a warning. After three hours, you will be automatically logged out of the system and will lose any unsaved information. You can avoid losing your work by saving often.

You will see the different sections of the application across the top of the form, you can click within those sections to navigate between pages:
